

The Spa at

Crocodile Bay

Costa Rica

Choose from more than 20 signature treatments that utilize the natural extracts of local fruits and flowers as well as the nutrient rich volcanic deposits of the surrounding areas.

Enjoy quiet time in our spacious relaxation room with a fresh fruit drink or herbal tea as you listen to the exotic sounds of the rainforest.

Rest, Relax and Rejuvenate!

"I have traveled the world for the past 20 years as the wife of a Major League Baseball player. During that time I have visited spas throughout the United States, Canada and Japan. I have found the Spa at Crocodile Bay Lodge to be right up there with the best."

Debbie Boggs, Wife of Wade Boggs, Major League Baseball Hall of Famer

Prepare yourself for the ultimate experience in Costa Rica's most biologically diverse region. The Spa at Crocodile Bay lies on 44 acres between the largest coastal rainforest of the Americas and the picturesque Golfo Dulce, a true paradise on Earth. At 5,000 square feet we are Costa Rica's newest and largest luxury Spa. Wake up each morning to the sounds of more than 700 exotic bird species including the largest Scarlet Macaw population north of the Amazon. Indulge yourself in a few of our signature treatments and enjoy diversions such as sunset kayaking, a trip across the gulf to a 10 acre orchid farm, horseback riding along secluded beaches or a walk through a wild rainforest.

Golfo Dulce tours by boat.

Walk through a wild rainforest or cool down in one of the many local waterfalls.

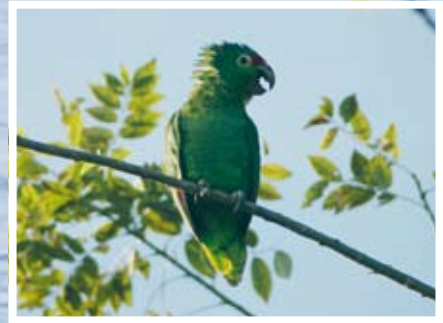

Visit our Butterfly Sanctuary to view the exotic Blue Morpho butterfly as well as other exotic species.

Perfect for weddings and group events of all sizes. Spa facilities include open air seating for large groups with views of the surrounding gardens. Please contact us for more information about weddings, conferences and group events.
